CONSTITUTION OF THE NORTHERN BRITISH COLUMBIA GRADUATE STUDENTS' SOCIETY

ARTICLE I: NAME OF SOCIETY

The name of the society is the Northern British Columbia Graduate Students' Society (hereinafter referred to as "the Society").

ARTICLE II: SOCIETY PURPOSE

The purposes of the Society are:

1. To act as a democratic body;
2. To foster equality among members;
3. To develop Society Bylaws and Policies in a fair and open manner;
4. To act on behalf of graduate students in general, and to specifically work towards strengthening a sense of place and community at the University of Northern British Columbia (hereinafter referred to as "UNBC") through the following objectives:
 - a. Facilitate an awareness of the rights, privileges, and obligations of members
 - b. Advocate for the removal of physical and systemic barriers that prevent full access of students to graduate school, academic programs, facilities, and services at UNBC, as well as for the provision of appropriate facilities and services to enable enrollment and participation at UNBC;
 - c. Advocate for adequate and equitable funding for all graduate students;
 - d. Maintain continuous communication between the Society and UNBC administration, faculty, and staff;
 - e. Require the principle and practice of graduate student representation at all levels of decision making at UNBC;
 - f. Ensure the Society's administration office serves as the center of communication;
 - g. Ensure UNBC adheres to the principles of participative and distributive justice;
 - h. Foster and enhance the learning environment at UNBC;
 - i. Advocate for on campus family housing, affordable childcare, and health care for members;
 - j. Promote graduate student activities among members; and

- k. Endorse the following statement: Graduate Education is a Right, not a Privilege.
5. To perform everything incidental and essential in attaining the aforementioned purposes;
and
6. To use of any and all profits accrued by the Society for the promotion and attainment of the aforementioned purposes and objectives.

BYLAWS OF THE NORTHERN BRITISH COLUMBIA GRADUATE STUDENTS' SOCIETY

PREAMBLE

These Bylaws, set forth with the belief that vigorous and judicious involvement and contribution in every aspect of the University of Northern British Columbia that concerns graduate students is constructively reasonable, establishes a Society that will be responsive without being repressive or restrictive, and will insure that graduate students of the University of Northern British Columbia are fairly, equitably, and justly recognized and represented.
